MEDIA RELEASE

December 8, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 8, 2016

On Saturday, October 22, 2016, at approximately 7:15 pm, a motorcycle was damaged outside of Primanti Brothers, 130 Hiester Street. A suspect was seen on surveillance footage causing damage to the motorcycle. It appears that three males walked east on Calder Way, came upon the parked motorcycle and took pictures and/or video of the suspect knocking over the bike before running off.

The suspect is a white male with a small build and dark hair. He was wearing a number 10 basketball jersey over a hooded sweatshirt. The males that were in the area with the suspect, are also pictured above.

We are urging anyone who may be able to identify the male or have information regarding this incident to contact the State College Police Department at (814) 234-7150, by email or submit an anonymous tip through our website.
