MEDIA RELEASE

June 3, 2014

On May 20, 2014 at approximately 4:20 p.m., a white female exited the Benner Pike Walmart located at 373 Benner Pike, College Township, State College, PA. The female pushed a cart full of store merchandise outside to a waiting vehicle without paying for any of the merchandise in the cart.

The female suspect had a slender build wearing a black top, grey sweatpants, with brown hair carrying a pink purse. The female pushed the cart to a Red Saturn sedan that was waiting parked in the fire lane. The driver of the Saturn was believed to be a white male. The female loaded the merchandise into the Saturn and walked away.

The female suspect then entered a blue Jeep Cherokee parked in the center of the lot. As the female entered the vehicle, the red Saturn drove past behind her vehicle. The female backed the Cherokee out and followed the red Saturn out of the lot towards Sam's Club.

If you can provide any information pertaining to this theft incident, please contact State College Police Department at (814)234-7150 or submit an anonymous tip through the web.
